

Quota International of Cambridge, MD, Inc.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

The Volunteer of the Year for 2007 is an extremely talented, vibrant and enthusiastic member of Quota. Though only a member since 2003, she has already established herself as a gifted leader in Quota and carries out that trait in her professional career also, having recently been promoted to Assistant Auditor in the bank in which she works.

Born and raised in Cambridge, she graduated from Cambridge High School. When she married, she became a legitimate member of a family of hunters as she also loves to hunt, fish, crab, go boating and garden. She will be married 31 years this coming September and has one daughter and one son.

She, as treasurer, and her husband, as vice-president, are actively involved in the Grace Foundation, an organization devoted to the preservation of old buildings on Taylors Island.

Since being in Quota, she has been active in most of the many and varied projects of the club. She served as Recording Secretary for two years and also during this time acted as Program Chairperson and thus was, with Special Missions, responsible for the resounding success of the 2006 Friendly Relations. She has agreed to keep the latter responsibility and has also agreed to be a two year board member. She has already begun plans for our 40th anniversary celebration in 2008 as well as honoring the high spenders for our 2007 fund raiser, Derby Day.

She has a special talent for designing and making stained glass and has donated one of her creations for the Derby Day fundraiser each year since joining the club.

This is truly one person who readily "Shares HER Sunshine", personally, professionally, and, definitely in Quota. We are indeed fortunate to have this person as a member and would like to honor, Lisa Neild.
